

Saying "I" or "we" Are Going Somewhere

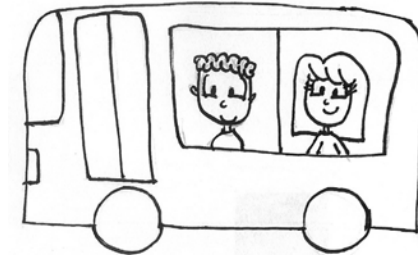

Turn on the audio file and read along.

When we want to say "I" or "we" are going somewhere, we use "voy" or "vamos". Take a look:

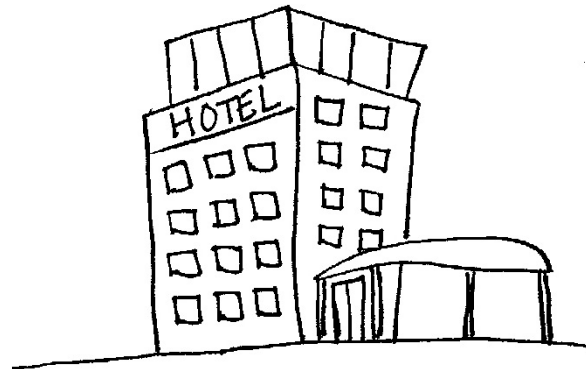

Voy a la estación. = I go to the station.

Vamos a la estación. = We go to the station.

Voy al hotel. = I go to the hotel.

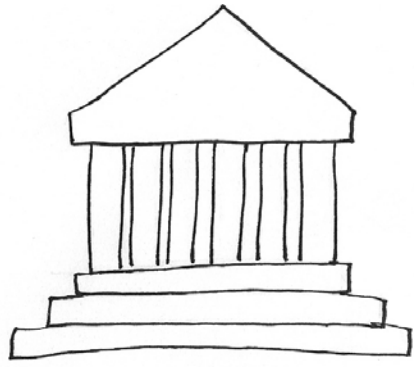

Vamos al hotel. = We go to the hotel.

Did you notice that after "voy" or "vamos" there is "a la" or "al"? That is because "a" means "to". "La" or "el" mean "the". Also, when a word uses "el", we change the "a + el" to "al".
